Public Leadership in Times of Crisis

One day National E-conference organised by Indian Institute of Public Administration Aurangabad Local Branch, Shri Asaramji Bhandwadar Arts, Commerce and Science College, Deogaon and Chetana Shikashan Prasark Mandal's Arts College, Aurangabad

Today world is facing various crisis. One of which evident is CORONA virus pandemic. India also responded to this crisis effectively and innovatively. Like this pandemic Indian democracy is facing other challenges like Citizenship Amendment Act, Farm Act, Water crisis etc.

This National Conference is looking for observational studies and research as governments around the world respond to the COVID-19 pandemic and other crisis. In this crisis situation, leadership in varied forms and addressing myriad questions is critical (Boin et al., 2018; Hartley, 2018). The presence—or glaring absence—of strong political leadership at all levels of government is central in a crisis (Kettl, 2006). The role of Elected officials—city mayors, state governors, provincial premiers, presidents and prime ministers, administrators, civil society, citizens is crucial in overcoming and minimising the effects of crisis.

Papers from academicians, researchers are invited on this subject, but not limited to only this also includes following sub themes.

1. Role of political and administrative leaders during crisis situations
2. Whether it is necessary to publicadministration to shift to more shared and collaborative forms of leadership: shift to the new public management and new public governance paradigms
3. opportunities for innovative leadership by public servants at all levels due to crisis
4. Leadership of Health care sector to provide services
5. foresight to conceptualise and understand future crisis events to work Administrators and politicians collaboratively.
